As a co-captain puts forth his strong hand to steady the ship that has lost its captain, so did Ralph L. Warren, our beloved principal, take over our school when death claimed his predecessor, Otto H. Boettcher.

In memory we shall always cherish his friendship and understanding heart. He is rich in the noble gifts of nature, but eminently distinguished by the noblest and rarest, just judgment and high hearted patriotism.

Hence it is with peculiar pleasure and pride, we the class of 1950-51 of Snow Hill School dedicate this third volume of the Memoirs to Ralph L. Warren, our beloved principal and friend.
